The start of the New Year on January 1st is a popular time for celebrating all across the UK. Celebrations can start early on New Year's Eve, December 31st, as people meet up with friends and family members. Many people have a drink in a pub or go to a special party in someone's home. Everyone hopes to start off the New Year with good intentions so they make some resolutions to help them have a successful year.

We asked young people around the UK about their plans are for New Year's Eve and about their New year's resolutions are:

My Plans New Year, or Hogmanay, is more important than Xmas to some people in Scotland. I am invited to two Hogmanay parties and I intend going to both ! We usually sing Auld Lang Syne at midnight and my Uncle John is always our first footer at home. He's the first person to enter our home He's the first person to enter our house after midnight. It is good luck if this person is a tall man with dark hair, just like my Uncle. My resolutions Eat fewer sweets, be nicer to my little brother and improve my computer skills Mary 17 Glasgow	My plans I am joining my parents in a New Year's Day swim this year. It's freezing cold in the water but it is a fun way to start the year. Quite a lot of people meet on Brighton beach for this first swim of the year. I hope it doesn't snow. I won't be out partying the night before because I don't like all the noise and drinking ! My family usually have a quiet evening and watch the celebrations on TV. My resolutions Do some voluntary work in my area and improve my tennis. Maybe be nicer to my girlfriend!! Ben 16 Brighton	My plans I am going to the centre of Newcastle with my cousins and friends to see in the New Year. I love being in a crowd when the clocks strike midnight. Everyone kisses each other, sings and drinks champagne. This is the first New year's Eve in the streets as my parents said I was too young last year. We will probably get back home at four or five in the morning. My resolutions Learn how to play the guitar and talk less in class! Study hard to get good grades for university. Sophie 18 Newcastle Upon Tyne

Good year, bad year (speaking prompts)

Some years are better or more enjoyable/successful than others. We remember these years and the special things that happened for a long while.

Choose a good year for you.

Tell your partner why the year was special: What happened? What did you do? Who did you meet? Where did you go?

Make a list of things that happened over the last year. Follow these headings to help you:

- New friends
- Fun things I did
- Key events/moments
- Fun things I heard or saw
- Important lessons I learned

Interview your partners/classmates about their year. Was it a good or bad year?

Do you know what happened in the year you were born?

Find out as much as you can and describe the year to your class.

Do people make resolutions for the New Year in your country?
