

An Introduction to Alchemist: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=htHhvLM7KFg>

1. What is the main focus of the restaurant Alchemist?

- a) Culinary history
- b) Holistic dining experience
- c) Fast food experience
- d) Traditional fine dining

2. How does the restaurant combine gastronomy with other elements?

- a) Performance and music
- b) Visual art and drama
- c) Elements of science
- d) All of the above

3. Who greets the guests in the restaurant's entrance?

- a) Chefs
- b) Hosts
- c) Artists
- d) Scientists

4. What is the intention behind taking the natural light out of the restaurant and not allowing the staff to wear watches? (2 options are right)

- a) To save on electricity
- b) To create a unique dining experience
- c) To discourage long meal times
- d) To take the diners out of time and space

5. How does the restaurant aim to make the diners feel?

- a) Rushed
- b) Relaxed
- c) Overwhelmed
- d) Disoriented

6. Who is in charge of most of the architecture in the restaurant?

- a) Host
- b) VFX technician
- c) Director
- d) Head chef

7. What does Rasmus want to add to the dining experience to avoid being too serious?

- a) Dramatic elements
- b) Continuous research
- c) A sense of humor
- d) A formal atmosphere

8. Which movement has significantly influenced the concept of the Alchemist restaurant?

- a) Biodiversity conservation
- b) Environmental activism
- c) New Nordic movement
- d) Gastronomical evolution

9. What has the new Nordic movement focused on?

- a) Global elements
- b) Biodiversity and local
- c) Fusion cuisine
- d) Fast food culture

10. How does the restaurant Alchemist distinguish itself from traditional fine dining restaurants?

- a) Introduction of fast food elements
- b) Focus on sustainable practices
- c) Inclusion of theatrical and dramatic elements
- d) Offering classic dishes with a modern twist